

2008 PRIESTER NATIONAL EXTENSION HEALTH CONFERENCE

APRIL 8 - 10, 2008

Sheraton Imperial Hotel, Raleigh/Durham, North Carolina

Building Healthy Communities, One Person at a Time

Tracks for Concurrent Workshops & Presentations:

Successful Aging

Global Health

Growing up Healthy IRL (in real life)

Share Fair:

Posters, Displays and Reception with entertainment

General Sessions:

*Invited speakers address trends & emerging issue, such as:
health effects of global warming, global consumer product safety, new immigrant health, health disparities among youth, baby-boomers & care giving -- the health of the sandwich generation*

Pre-Conference Options:

April 7, 2008: SERA-19 Rural Health Working Session

April 8, 2008 (morning): Skills Workshops OR Tours of EPA, NIEHS

New this Year: Sharpening the Saw Playshops:

Active, experiential sessions focused on work/life balance and renewal

Call for Presentations Deadline: November 30, 2007

Priester Award Nominations Deadline: February 15, 2008

Conference Web Site:

<http://continuingeducation.ncsu.edu/PNEHC/index.html>

Sponsored by: NC State University Family and Consumer Sciences,
North Carolina Cooperative Extension, USDA CSREES

Coordinating Committee: Robert Williamson (robertw@ncat.edu); Sandy Wiggins (sandy_wiggins@ncsu.edu), Julia Storm (julia_storm@ncsu.edu)